

About My Company:

Citrin Cooperman & Company, LLP was founded in 1979, and has grown into a mid-sized tax, accounting and business consulting firm that specializes in helping entrepreneurs succeed. Our focus is on working with closely-held businesses and in doing so we give you and your business the attention you need and expect from your accounting professionals

Our firm currently has 85 partners and over 350 professional and administrative staff throughout of five offices. Our corporate headquarters is located in mid-town Manhattan and our four regional offices are located in Springfield, New Jersey; White Plains, New York; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and Southport, Connecticut.

The majority of the professionals in all of our offices work in our accounting / auditing department or within the tax department. Our accounting department specializes in audit, review and compilation engagements, while our tax department is responsible for tax research and planning, review of corporate, partnership and not-for-profit tax returns, preparation of individual tax returns, and related financial guidance on estate planning and other issues.

The firm also offers a management advisory service department which performs systems and data processing feasibility studies, helps clients select and implementation data processing equipment and prepares budgets and cost studies. Our Forensic and Valuation team performs special accounting services such as forensic services, succession planning, purchase investigations, mergers and acquisitions, fraud analyses and operational reviews

I provide:

I joined Citrin Cooperman in 2001 through merger of a smaller firm, which contributed to my having over 12 years experience in public accounting. My clients range a variety of industries such as real estate, manufacturing, staffing, retail and wholesale, and funeral homes, as well as others. I bring a “we” approach to my engagements, dealing with my clients business as if it were my business. One my biggest strengths is that I work with our clients staff to establish and maintain proper bookkeeping, accounting procedures, and to generate informational reporting the owners need to run a productive operation. I feel rewarded when a client is successful and will be there to assist them through times of turmoil.

I'd like to speak with:

- Business owners
- Attorneys
- Bankers
- CFO's and controllers
- Financial planners

Situations where I can help:

- Bookkeeping assistance
- Financial statement preparation
- Tax compliance
- Valuation services
- Merger and acquisition
- Forensic services
