Gregory Reid
Sales Associate

About My Company:

Since 1955, NAI James E. Hanson has been a leading independent full-service brokerage and property management firm serving a diverse client list. NAI Hanson offers its clients strategic solutions and provides comprehensive value-added services such as office, industrial and retail brokerage, investment sales, land sales, management, relocation facilitation and financing expertise.

NAI Hanson is also one of the original members of NAI Global, an international commercial real estate network with over 350 offices spanning the globe. NAI Global professionals provide a full spectrum of services available to regional, national and international clients via our global network of independent commercial real estate brokerage companies.

I provide:

- A team approach to tenant and building representation
- Market information
- Full CRE services, both locally and globally
- Customers & clients with in-depth information whereby they can make long-term credible business decisions on their real estate
- Unmatched knowledge of the Morris/Essex/Somerset CRE market

I'd like to speak with:

- CRE owners, developers & investors
- 'C' level executives of local companies
- Attorneys & accountants
- Municipal/Government/EDC directors

Situations where I can help:

- Lease and contract negotiations
- Comparables
- Market information
- Investment situations with buyers and sellers
