NexGen Management, LLC

Mr. Greg Stewart, Partner

About:

A professional services firm providing staffing & recruiting technology professionals, business process and operational delivery improvements, human resources support for executive & manager education and Identity Theft Compliance and Group Protection Services.

I provide:

- Retained and Contingency recruiting
- Discovery/Due Diligence of operational systems, services and processes
- Consulting, coaching and advising business change management and process engineering
- Identity Theft Compliance consulting and group protection services

I'd like to speak with:

- Business Owners
- Small, mid and large sized companies
- Departmental Managers/Directors
- HR Executives
- Technology Executives
- Compliance Officers and/or Operations Managers
- Companies or consultants that need improvements in the operational delivery/support systems in their business
- Candidates looking for an opportunity
- I would not like to speak with HR staff only looking to identify market price for candidates

Situations where I can help:

- Businesses not performing to their maximum because of breakdown in internal flow of information
- Businesses needing to add full-time or temporary/contracted technology help
- Companies looking to train and/or coach their managers in applying process improvements
- Any client wanting to improve the performance of their business and improve profitability
- Companies concerned with Identity Theft and Identity Theft Compliance Laws
- Developing the Management Team (HR support and training)
