

Joseph W. Fisher, President
Affinity IT Training
www.affinity-it.com

Mr. Fisher holds an undergraduate degree in Computer Science from Merrimack College, a Graduate degree in Computer Science from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, and an MBA from Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Areas of expertise include Cybersecurity, Software Development, and Project Management.

Joe has been providing technical training and consulting since 1993, and has literally trained thousands of students around the world in a wide variety of IT topics. Relying on his own extensive experience and a personal network of IT professionals, Joe has developed Affinity IT Training into a firm that can assist firms, both large and small, with their technical training needs anywhere in the world.