JCP&L President Don Lynch Named to Morris Business Cabinet

Morristown, NJ - The Morris County Chamber of Commerce has named Jersey Central Power & Light (JCP&L) President Don Lynch to the Morris Business Cabinet. The Business Cabinet is a Chamber forum for senior executives who have significant corporate assets and employees in Morris County.

“JCP&L further expands the Business Cabinet’s reach into a diverse group of organizations that impact business and our community in Morris County,” said B.J. Agugliaro, chairman of the Morris Business Cabinet and NJ Managing Partner of PwC. “With close to 200,000 Morris County customers, we welcome JCP&L’s perspectives and look forward to demonstrating the value of the Business Cabinet.”

The Business Cabinet provides executive leadership from the private sector to drive a more effective Chamber agenda in four major areas – influencing public policy, promoting business best practices, developing a stronger workforce and providing advocacy and support for economic development on behalf of the entire business community in Morris County.

“We are looking forward to working more closely with Don and JCP&L to grow the economy of Morris County,” said Paul Boudreau, President of the Morris County Chamber. “The Chamber appreciates the company’s leadership support for the work we do with municipalities and the private sector to maintain our quality of life in Morris County.”

JCP&L serves 1.1 million customers in 13 counties in Northern and Central New Jersey.
