

June 14, 2013

Chamber Hosts Meeting with Congressman Frelinghuysen on Immigration Reform

The Chamber hosted a meeting last week with Congressman Frelinghuysen, interested members and representatives of the American Jewish Committee joined together to discuss immigration reform.

The United States Senate has begun consideration of this important issue and at some point in the future the House of Representatives will consider the Senate bill and other alternatives drafted by House members. Border Security, a path to citizenship, reforming existing work visa programs and other issues were discussed.

For more details, contact Chamber President, Paul Boudreau at paul@morrishamber.org